Lord, we believe in thee, help thou our unbelief; we love thee, yet not with perfect hearts; we serve thee, yet not with all of our strength. MUSICAL NOTES:

Today's music traces the movement of God's love—from the grace we freely receive to the care we offer one another. As God's Word takes root in our hearts, it nurtures a faith that reaches beyond what we say and finds expression in how we live. In Christ, we discover both the depth of that love and the pattern for sharing it, bringing our different gifts into a common calling. May our worship awaken compassion, deepen our fellowship, and give us courage to extend Christ's welcome, so that the love which gathers us here continues its work through us in the world.

Thank you to our guest cellist, Madeleine Plotkin, for assisting the choir. She is the daughter of Adam Plotkin and Jaime Healy-Plotkin and the granddaughter of Sandy and Dave Healy. Madeleine is a sophomore at Madison West High School. She enjoys playing her cello for the West High School senior orchestra, Wisconsin Youth Symphony Orchestra (WYSO), and Madison Cello Emsemble.

*Congregation is invited to stand at this time.
